

Charity Deluxe-13/07/2009

BARCELONA Deluxe presents its tenth issue in a charity event for UNICEF

With a festive and refreshing typical summer, held a fundraising dinner for UNICEF, at the restaurant Da Greco Port Sitges on 3 July. The reception of the prize Second prize for best publication of 2008 awarded by the Spanish Association of Publishers of Periodicals (AEEPP) has made us very conscious of the enormous responsibility that has been placed in us and in this new responsibility we accommodate in our pages and at our events to foundations and nongovernmental organizations that have a major impact on society, and whose work is remarkable. And that is the case of UNICEF. Concha Ares, Vice President of UNICEF CATALONIA joined us in Sitges for a magical and festive evening of great celebration, but with an eye toward social responsibility and commitment.

Before dinner, our friends and colleagues were able to enjoy a tasting, courtesy of Grup Peralada and TROIKA DELICATESSEN.

The dinner was attended by numerous personalities, members of the Tourism Council of Sitges, Carmen Prat (Communication Councilor Hon. Ayto de Sitges), Joan Matas (Chairman Committee Sitges Promotion Agency), Sophie Castell (VOCAL Board CATALUNYA UNICEF), Yolanda Bergareche (Gestmusic Endemol) that came with William Lipperheide, Eusebio Sacristan (BARÇA DREAM TEAM, currently handled by REAL Celta Vigo), Claudia Trimde (CEO VIP MEDIA PRESS, publisher of BARCELONA Deluxe) and its editor, Asha Miró

After dinner, was auctioned original shirt signed by FC Barcelona striker Samuel Eto'o. The proceeds from the auction was also to benefit UNICEF.

And then the big party at Sweet Deluxe Pacha Barcelona hosted by PEP BOFILL, the unique and trendy lounge club that makes Sitges chic destination of the moment.

A committed and unforgettable night!
