Surprising Cases

Rosa Girona - 15/03/2010

Paco Rabanne has launched a limited edition of its male fragrances in a number of surprising cases, which create quite an impacting visual effect. A practical, unique and surprising gift.

The cases feature a fun zipper that calls on us to open it up and enjoy it. Each case comes in the characteristic colour of the fragrance's packaging. Gold for One Million, black for Black XS, violet for Ultraviolet Man, white for XS and green for Paco Rabanne Pour Homme.

All cases contain the fragrance and its respective shower gel and, in lieu of Father's Day, are running for a very special price. They will be available until supplies run out.
