Stuart Hughes has a gold and diamond iPhone

Pablo Manzanelli - 19/07/2010

If the iPhone 4G was one of the most attractive phones on the market, Stuart Hughes has been charged with double the bet and make it an even more exclusive device. This is an iPhone that combines the known benefits adding design details that make it more powerful.

For Apple's flagship product is a real gem, Hughes has added diamonds that adorn the logo of the brand of apple and a framework that makes it even more attractive. Crowning design renovations, the phone features tone details and a letter F platinum encrusted with diamonds. The buyer can choose from a covered platinum or 22 karat gold, which gives the product a more personal style.

This edition has been dubbed the iPhone 4G Diamond Edition and its cost in the market is around 16,000 euros. The device has a storage capacity of 32 GB and is sold unlocked so it can be used by different operators anywhere in the world.
